windream sponsors Aust Motorsport at the ADAC GT Masters 2021

Bochum. The ADAC GT Masters will start in mid-May and windream GmbH will be at the start. For the first time, the ECM-provider supports the Aust Motorsport team and enables its customers and partners to experience the races up close.

Due to the sponsoring, windream will receive almost 100 exclusive tickets, which will surely cause a lot of adrenalin among the spectators. They will not only follow the races live from the pit lane and will be able to look behind the scenes of motorsports, but will also have the opportunity to get to know the Aust team including the drivers. There will be a total of 14 season races on Saturdays and Sundays on seven weekends in Germany, Austria and the Netherlands. There will also be an open practice session on each Friday.

With its new drivers Sebastian Asch and Daniel Keilwitz, the Aust team has every reason to hope for top positions. While Asch has already taken home the championship trophy twice in the ADAC GT Masters, Keilwitz has won the championship title in the FIA GT3 European Championship and once in the ADAC GT Masters.

"We are very pleased about the commitment of windream GmbH," says team boss Frank Aust. "Together, we will cause quite a stir and are looking forward to when the first race finally gets underway on May 14, 2021."

Hilmar Hänel, team leader in the partner management of windream GmbH, adds: "Mobility and independence are indispensable preconditions for success both in racing and in the development of IT-supported document management systems. As Aust Motorsport and we combine these two characteristics in an ideal way, we decided to support the racing team."
